The gross and net earnings of the railroads of the United States for the half year ended with June 30 have been complled by the Financial Chronicle for 186 roads working 136,843 miles. The gain in gross was $51,000,000, or 11.73 per cent. The gain in operating expenses was $33,333,333, or 10.74 per cent. The gain in net was 17.8 millions or 14.18 per cent.

The Seventh army corps of more than 30,000 soldiers is in Florida, where the conditions are not favorable to health and yet there is less sickness among those 30,000 soldiers than there is among any 30,000 men in any city in the United States. What is the reason? Have they had better food, more suitable clothing, more and better nurses and physicians than have the other camps? Not at all, but they have had Fitzhugh Lee in command, and thanks to this brave soldier, without fear and without reproach, his command is in E. H. Bacon, D. P. A., Louisville. Ky Post.

OF STANFORD, KY. Capital Stock $100,000. Surplus, $15.750

Attention of the public is ralled to the fact that this is the only National Bank in Stanford. Under the provisions of the National Bank Act depositors are secured not only by the capital stock, but by the stockholders' liability for an amount equalita the stock so that depositors of this institution are secured by a fund of $250,000. Five sworm statements of the condition of the Bank are made each year to the United States Government and its assets are examined at stated times by government assets are examined at stated times by government gents, thus securing additional and perfect salet agents, thus securing additional and perfect salet to depositors.

This institution originally established as the Deposit Bank of Stanford in 1858, then reorganized as the National Bank of Stanford in 1860 and again reorganized as the First National Bank of Stanford in 1882, has had practically an uninterrupted existence for 15 years. It is better supplied now with incilities for transacting business promptly and liberally than ever before in its long and honorable career. Accounts of individuals, fiduciaries, firms and individuals solicited.
